INBETWEEN / AMAC & CHEHEHE

Coming together Amac & Chehehe ask the question; what is it to be fathers. As Chehehe newly became one and Amac being one twice over; we looked at the dynamic moments in our lives, some emotionally charged, some just a thought and others a scene of experience in relation to the ever moving nature of parenthood.

Building on 15 years of painting together on the streets of Melbourne and in the Artshole studio, they built these pieces from the ground up. The Dodgy Paper was made specifically for the show, the Lousy Ink was created from the base of cmyk.

The hope is that the viewer can recognise some of these shared experiences and join us on the path that we've travelled or will one day encounter.
